Subject Legal Opinion

To Whom It May Concern,

With reference to your request for KCM Trade to provide a license for CFD trading services in order to allow KCM Trade's clients to download the KCM Trade application on the App Store, the relevant facts and details are already well known to you.

In my capacity as legal counsel, I wish to inform you that, under current Thai law, there is no specific legislation requiring a license for the provision of CFD trading services, nor is there any regulatory authority in Thailand empowered to issue a specific license for such CFD trading services.

Accordingly, permitting clients to download the aforementioned application via the App Store does not require the presentation of a CFD trading license under Thai law.

Yours sincerely,

ผ.ภัตถารอด กระจ่างจิต
